AT A GLANCE

Welcome & Keynote Address

Patrick Jeffs, PhD, LPC, SEP
Dr. Patrick Jeffs is a Resiliency Trainer, Coach, and Consultant. He has worked at the intersection of research, clinical application and business for 15 years in various settings and capacities. He co-founded and is CFO of NC Center for Resiliency, PLL in Chapel Hill, NC. Dr. Jeffs will lead an interactive session focusing on resiliency for you and those you serve.

Keynote Address & Closing Remarks

Alan Mueller, Ed.D., Ed.S.
Dr. Alan Mueller is a native of North Carolina. He holds a B.A. in Philosophy & Religion, an M.A. in College Student Development, an Ed.S. in Higher Education Administration and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership. He has presented and published regionally and nationally on a variety of topics including leadership, experiential education, intercultural student development, and values-based education. Dr. Mueller will focus on how we can live our best lives and promote an attitude of growth.

Breakout Session Highlights

- Walking the Tight Rope - Balancing Personal & Work Objectives
- Inspiring Growth & Change Among Students & Professionals
- Ethical Consideration of Online Counseling
- What Does it Take to be a Career Savvy Mama? A Workshop on Values Driven Employment Satisfaction in Mothers
- Building Resilience in Students: Strengths-Based Philosophy & Practice
- Outcomes of a Career Development Intervention for Ex-Offenders
- Helping Clients Counteract Ageism in the Job Search
- Uncle Sam, I Would Like a Job

Register by 10/4 at bit.ly/NCCDA2019